

Wilson's Pillory Cures $50,000 Furlong Preckness Stakes Before Record Crowd

Also an Outsider Takes Second; June Crosses Third

Jockey Morris Rides Great Race to Win by a Head in Driving Finish; Miss Joy, the Favorite, Runs a Disappointing Race, Stopping Badly

BALTIMORE, May 13.—Richard T. Wilson's three-year-old Pillory, a surprise on the turf world at Pimlico this afternoon when he won the $50,000 Preckness at a mile and a furlong in a field of twelve crack three-year-olds. He won by a head from the Salubria Stable's Hea, an outsider, which forced the winner to extend himself to the very end to hold the slender advantage over the last few yards to the wire.

Off at a Cohan's June Cross was the favorite, three lengths back of the leaders, and Pirate Gold, one of the two horses owned by the Greenlee stable, was fourth.

The race was run in the presence of 30,000 spectators, which made up a record crowd of the Pimlico course. The great gathering was packed into the stands, spread out on lawns and on the roof of the grandstand, and the field, which was made up of the twelve crack three-year-olds, was a heavy favorite for the winner. By his victory Pillory won $50,000 for his owner, Richard T. Wilson, and the favorite, Hea, while the second, third and fourth place horses received $5,000, $3,000 and $2,000 respectively.

Meris Rides Well

The time of the race was 1:51.8-5, three-fifths of a second slower than the record. This mark was established by Waterbury in 1911. The fourth place horse, Hea, was the same as the record holder in 1920 when he made his debut.

Pillory was ridden by jockey Morris, the stable rider, and he used excellent judgment in the race. He did not attempt to lead the race, but he kept in the thick of the pack, waiting until the last few yards to make his move. He then moved up with a challenge that the leaders could not meet. Hea, who had been the favorite, was stopped badly and finished in fourth place. The race was a hard fought one, and Pillory was forced to use his whip and pull to a hard drive.

Galantman Heads Field

The twelve high-strung thoroughbreds gave starter James Milroy very little trouble at the start. Miss Joy was the favorite, but she was stopped badly and finished in fourth place. The race was a hard fought one, and Pillory was forced to use his whip and pull to a hard drive.

Pillory Shows to Front

Pillory had been slow to the view of the crowd and probably forgotten. But he moved along on the outside and at the far turn he came in along with a burst of speed. The Old Gold and Green of the Wilsons called on her at the six-furlong point and after showing a burst of speed she faded and she stopped in the eighth place. The race was a hard fought one, and Pillory was forced to use his whip and pull to a hard drive.
